YOUTH INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY

Eurasia net assists each year around a hundred young people aged 18 to 30 from the Bouches-du-Rhône department and other regions of France to engage in international volunteering via the International Civic Service and European Solidarity Corps programs, which are real tools for socio-professional integration. These two programs are accessible regardless of diplomas or professional experience. We also offer opportunities to participate in Erasmus+ projects, an opportunity to meet young people, have intercultural exchanges and training.

Our support

- Help with applications
- Language workshops
- Group pre-departure training
- Individual follow-up throughout the volunteering mission
- Follow-up after the volunteering mission
- Focus on future projects

EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION PROJECTS

Eurasia net is part of a network with organizations across Asia and Europe in the construction of projects supported by programs such as Citizens' Europe, Erasmus+ or the Franco-German Youth Office. Are you a local authority, an organization active in the fields of youth education or integration, a higher education institution?

Do you want to set up a project with an international dimension? Contact us to benefit from our expertise.

LOCAL SUPPORT

Eurasia net carries out actions with a local impact:

- Interventions and events: awareness of European mobility in the region.
- Youth initiative incubator: support for young people in setting up solidarity and sustainable projects.
- Open Lab: support for students in civic projects on their territory.
- Development of opportunities to welcome volunteers through the civic service for associations or local authorities.

Each year Eurasia net:

- Sends young people on a voluntary mission and supports them in their future project
- Organizes actions to raise awareness on the challenges of citizenship and international solidarity for young people.
- Organizes training for our volunteers and partners.
