Who are we?

Eurasia net is a French non-governmental organisation based in Marseille, in the South of France. It was founded in 2013. Its main objectives are:

To promote European and international cooperation in the educational, intercultural, or environmental fields through youth exchanges in Europe and Asia;

To strengthen youth and social innovation, promote social entrepreneurship and sustainable development actions and consciousness;

To have a positive impact on the local and regional community in France and abroad.

Eurasia Net is deeply committed to developing young people's skills and accompanying them in the construction of their future projects.

Thanks to our volunteering missions, they gain experience in the field of interculturality, foreign languages, environment, and social entrepreneurship. Thus, they are able to gain personal and professional skills.

We provide an individual support volunteers before, during, and after their mission. Before their departure, volunteers attend a training session in Marseille where we give them the keys and tools to be prepared for their volunteering mission from an intercultural point of view. We also provide volunteers with important administrative assistance.

We have 10 years of experience as a sending, hosting, and coordinating organisation and we have developed important volunteering projects between Europe and Asia.

We currently have more than 70 partners in 30 different countries across Europe and Asia, and our network is constantly growing.
